HERMES

Huntin' and Shootin'

The best of the English fox hunt with a dose of drama. The look can be dressy and equestrian or it can be rough but still appropriate for horseback. Jodhpurs, knickers, cinched jackets, and dramatic vests are cut in old school plaids and menswear fabrics.

FRANKIE MORELLO

Old School

A hybrid of collegiate and mid-'60s Brit haberdashery. Traditional and reinvented plaids are found in capelets, dresses, and slim trousers. The simple tunic takes center stage. Keep your eye on Sienna Miller, as she appears to be spearheading the look.

Punk Ophelias

A little Johnny Rotten and a little costume combine to give this new twist on punk. Skinny pants, clear and simple graphics, and some mesh. Gray and black denim is key, and red is the accent.

DEBORAH LINDQUIST

YVES ST. LAURENT

Sergeant Peppers

"Costumey" shift dresses and coats are the focus. Glamour takes on uniforms in navy with hints of metallic. Button and belt closures are details of note, and leggings make the look wearable.

'80s Sport

The '80s take the stage, thanks in part to Madonna's current tour that draws influence from leotards to electric brights. Think jersey fabrics from leggings to off-the-shoulder tops, and dance silhouettes and glam screens are musts.
